Fr. Jean-Juste is one of Haiti's most respected human rights advocates. November 21 marked four months since he was illegally arrested and imprisoned. The coup regime in Haiti refuses to release him, despite having no evidence of wrongdoing. December 10 is Human Rights Day. There will be a large demonstration in Miami on this day for the release of Fr. Jean-Juste and all of Haiti's political prisoners. Please join us for this candlelight vigil in solidarity with our courageous brother, and with the Haitian community in Miami.

Free will offering to support Fr. Jean-Juste's work among impoverished children and the work of the Haiti Action Committee
