

Reframing the Israel-Palestine Conflict

Sharat G. Lin argues that reframing U.S. policy around root causes is needed to bring peace and social justice in the Middle East

Join us at the JUUST Peace meeting as Sharat G. Lin tells what every American should know about the U.S. role and how peace can be achieved. Sharat G. Lin is president of the San Jose Peace and Justice Center. He is a contributing author in the recently-published book Studies in Inequality and Social Justice (edited by Kira Hall).

Sunday, July 18, 2010, 1:00 pm

First Unitarian Church

Fireside Room

160 North Third Street

San José, CA 95112

Wheelchair accessible

Info: 408-292-3858 <http://www.sanjoseuu.org> ; 408-297-2299 <http://sanjosepeace.org>

Sponsored by the Social Justice Council of the First Unitarian Church of San José, and the San José Peace and Justice Center