

10 OF THE WORST TAX CHEATS

1 Exxon Mobil's 2009 profits totaled $19 billion, yet according to its SEC filings, the company received A $156 MILLION REBATE from the IRS. PLUS, IT DIDN'T PAY ANY FEDERAL TAXES.

2 Bank of America made $4.4 billion in profits last year. This was after it received A $1 TRILLION BAILOUT from the Federal Reserve and the Treasury Department, and A $1.9 BILLION TAX REFUND from the IRS.

3 General Electric has made $26 billion in profits in the United States over the past five years. It's also received A $4.1 BILLION TAX REFUND from the IRS. GE HAS CUT A FIFTH OF ITS AMERICAN JOBS in the past nine years, and is boosting jobs overseas—where tax rates are lower. And where it can continue evading U.S. taxes.

4 Chevron's IRS REFUND LAST YEAR TOTALED $19 MILLION, but its 2009 profits came to a whopping $10 billion.

5 Boeing received a $30 billion contract from the Pentagon to build 179 airborne tankers. It also received a $124 MILLION REFUND FROM THE IRS.

6 Valero Energy made $68 billion in sales and received a $167 MILLION TAX REFUND check from the IRS. Over the past three years, it has received a $134 million tax break thanks to the oil and gas manufacturing tax reduction.

7 Goldman Sachs paid 1.1% OF ITS 2008 INCOME IN TAXES. Yet it made a PROFIT OF $2.3 BILLION. And guess how much it received from the Federal Reserve and U.S. Treasury Department? $800 billion.

8 Citigroup profits last year totaled more than $4 billion. But it paid zero dollars in federal income tax, and RECEIVED A $2.5 TRILLION BAILOUT from the Federal Reserve and U.S. Treasury.

9 ConocoPhillips' profits from 2007 through 2009 totaled $16 billion. BUT IT WAS STILL AWARDED $451 MILLION IN TAX BREAKS because of the oil and gas manufacturing deduction.

10 Carnival Cruise Lines is apparently getting pretty good business: Its profits over the past five years totaled more than $11 billion. ITS FEDERAL INCOME TAX RATE, HOWEVER, CAME TO JUST 1.1%.
