

On the Waterfront? Warriors by the Bay?

A talk by ART AGNOS, former Mayor of San Francisco

The Golden State Warriors propose to build a 12-story basketball & entertainment complex, a 175-foot-high residential tower, a hotel, a 500-space private parking garage and a 90,000-foot shopping mall on the waterfront and on the Bay itself. Is this what we want for San Francisco's future?

Generally considered the last mayor of the left elected in San Francisco, Art Agnos, during whose administration the Embarcadero Freeway came down, has in recent months dedicated himself to challenging the corporate vision of San Francisco's waterfront.
