REVISITING LENIN

Part One of A Three Part Series
From 1902 'What is to be done?'
to the 1907 Fifth Congress of the RSDLP

This series, led by Ron Kelch, a non-Leninist Marxist-Humanist, aims to overcome some of the caricatures of Lenin coming in different ways from both Marxists and anarchists. Part one will take up the modifications of Lenin's theoretical views under the impact of the 1905 Revolution in Russia. Lenin's development was reflected in his participation and discussions with Trotsky and Luxemburg at the 1907 Congress of the Russian Social-Democratic Labor Party.

A weekly discussion series inspired by our respect for the work of Karl Marx and our belief that his work will remain as important for the class struggles of the future as they have been for the past.
