Subject who was an Oakland Police Officer, per the reporting party, who was an admitted prostitute, provided intelligence to the prostitute telling her to stay away from a well known area of prostitution, International Blvd in Oakland because an undercover sting was underway in the area.

The reporting party submitted a screen shot of the exchange to support her claims. In the exchange, Bunton, who was identified by the screen name "Superman" told her to stay away from International on a particular night because the was a UC operation going on.

Subject, per reporting party, received sex in exchange for the information.

It appeared that the subject had provided counter intelligence on police operations to assist the subject in avoiding potential incarceration and received a sex act as compensation for providing the information to the subject.
